UPE Newsbrief – April 2011

2011 Scholarship Applications – Active members of UPE are encouraged to submit applications for one of the 2011 UPE Scholarship awards. Awards range from $750 to $1,500. All scholarship applicants are required to complete a comprehensive application form (see attach form) and submit the following documents:

- The applicant's long-term plans for the profession,
- Summary of contributions to the UPE chapter and related student activities,
- All college-level transcripts,
- Recommendation from the UPE faculty adviser.

Council recommends that you submit all required scholarship application documents as a pdf file and send this file to upe@acm.org. Applications must be received by June 15, 2011.

Notes from the 2011 UPE Convention – The Annual Convention of UPE was held on March 11, 2011 in Dallas, Texas. The meeting venue was provided by the ACM SIGCSE and held in conjunction with the 2011 SIGCSE Symposium. More than 500 people attended this UPE event. Convention highlights included the following:

- Presentation of the ABACUS Award to Dr. Donald Knuth, Emeritus Professor at Stanford.
- Presentation of UPE activity reports from 10 chapter representatives.
- Elected Dr. Angela Wu, Professor and Chair of Computer Science at the American University, as the new UPE executive Council Member.

Additional details and photos from the 2011 UPE Convention can be found in the UPE website.
